3 II. MOTION

4 COMES NOW Ronald G. Brown, the trustee in the above entitled case, and moves the Court for
5 an order as follows: (a) confirming that the real property located at 868 Montcrest Drive, Redding,
6 California (the “Montcrest Property”) is property of the estate; (b) amending the May 16, 2011 order
7 authorizing the Trustee’s employment of Rob Middleton and the House of Realty, Inc. (Docket No. 163)
8 to include the Montcrest Property among the property for which the Trustee may employ Mr. Middleton
9 as his real estate agent; and (c) authorizing the Trustee to execute any agreements, instruments or any 10 other documents which he deems, in his sole discretion, necessary to carry out the requested order.
11

12 A. Relevant Background

13 The relevant history and background, on a chronological basis, related to this motion may be 14 summarized as follows:
15

16 The present case was commenced under Chapter 11 on August 19, 2010. At the time of filing,
17 the Debtor and his then spouse, Jill Borodin, were engaged in dissolution proceedings in King County
18 Superior Court (Cause No. 09-3-02955-9-SEA, hereinafter, the “Dissolution Action”). On October 22, 19 2010, Ms. Borodin filed a motion for appointment of a Chapter 11 trustee [Docket No. 32]. In the 20 motion, Ms. Borodin stated that a trustee needed to be appointed for, among other reasons, the 21 following: (a) “With hundreds of thousands of dollars at stake, and the possibility of recovering large 22 sums as fraudulently and/or preferentially transferred, the cost of appointing a trustee in this case is 23 well-justified.” [Docket No. 32 at page 9, lines 2 - 8]; and (b) “[D]ue to the tremendous interest of the 24 creditors of the estate to recover substantial sums as fraudulent and/or preferential transfers, it is in the 25 best interests of creditors that the Debtor remain under the Bankruptcy Court’s supervision in a Chapter
26
27

11.” [Id. at 10, lines 1 - 8.]¹

Ms. Borodin filed an ex parte motion on November 9, 2010 requesting confirmation that the automatic stay was not in effect pursuant to §362(c)(4) (due to two Chapter 11 case filings of the Debtor within the year prior to filing the present case). On November 12, 2010, the Court entered an order on Ms. Borodin’s ex parte motion wherein it held that “The automatic stay under 11 U.S.C. §362(a) is not in effect.” Docket No. 61.

A divorce decree was entered in the Dissolution Action on December 14, 2010 (the, “Decree”). A copy of the relevant excerpts of the Decree is attached as Exhibit A to the Declaration of Trustee’s Attorney in Support of Motion for Order Confirming That Real Property Is Property of the Estate (hereinafter, the “Declaration”, a copy of which is on file with the Court and available via ECF). The Decree characterized and divided the marital property. The Decree recognized that the Montcrest Property was community property and awarded it to Ms. Borodin. The Decree further provided for the Debtor to transfer the Montcrest Property to Ms. Borodin and if he did not, for a third party to be appointed under CR 70 to make the transfer.

The Bankruptcy Court granted Ms. Borodin’s motion for appointment of a trustee on December 22, 2010. Ronald G. Brown was thereafter appointed trustee.

Post-bankruptcy, the Debtor transferred his interest in the Montcrest Property and various other pieces of real property without Court authorization (hereinafter collectively the, “Transfers”). The Trustee commenced an adversary proceeding to avoid the Transfers (Adversary Proceeding # 11-01954 which is hereinafter called, the “Adversary Action”).² The Court subsequently entered a series of ¹ In her motion for appointment of a trustee, Ms. Borodin acknowledged that among the potential claims a trustee would pursue is avoidance of post-bankruptcy transfers. See, Docket No. 32 at 6, lines 29 - 43 and at 7, lines 1-3.

² The Adversary Action was commenced after the date of entry of the order, upon the Trustee’s motion, converting the case to Chapter 7 (March 11, 2011). Ronald G. Brown was appointed as the Chapter 7 trustee.

1 default orders and default judgments avoiding the Transfers. Docket Nos. 30, 82 and 123.³ In the 2 Findings of Fact Conclusion of Law and Default Judgment [Docket No. 30], the Court ordered, among
3 other things, that the Montcrest Property together with the other real property subject to the Action “is 4 quieted in the name of the trustee” as against defendant, Keywest Financial LLC.

5 The Trustee and Ms. Borodin negotiated a settlement, subject to Court approval, regarding the 6 disposition of the Montcrest Property. The main terms of that settlement may be summarized as 7 follows: The parties would stipulate that the Montcrest Property is property of the estate for purposes of 8 the settlement and the Adversary Action. The Trustee would sell the property and obtain any further
9 necessary orders to avoid and wipe out all post-petition liens relating thereto. The net proceeds of sale
10 would be used to pay the legal fees related to the Trustee’s avoidance of liens and sale of the property.
11 The balance of the net proceeds would be paid to Ms. Borodin except to the extent of $10,000 which 12 would be applied to pay any community property claims Ms. Borodin was ordered to pay in the 13 Dissolution Action.⁴ After notice and hearing, the Court denied the motion to approve the settlement.
14 The Trustee subsequently pursued negotiations with Ms. Borodin regarding a revised settlement which 15 were unsuccessful. Since negotiations broke down, the Trustee has further researched the status of the 16 Montcrest Property and concluded that it more than likely is property of the estate.⁵ Accordingly, he
17 seeks an order confirming that the Montcrest Property is property of estate so that he can move forward
18 with liquidating it (the last known asset of the estate) and close the case.
19
21
22
23
24

25 ³ The Court entered a default judgment in the Action avoiding the transfer of the Montcrest Property against Defendant,
26 Evergreen Home Mortgage Services, Inc. Docket No. 123. In addition, the Court entered an order of default as to the only
27 other known party claiming any title to the Montcrest Property, the 868 Montcrest Drive Family Trust.

⁴ As of the time of the settlement, there did not appear to be any claims filed in the bankruptcy that fall within that category.

⁵ This represents a change in the Trustee’s understanding and position. In prior pleadings, the Trustee indicated his understanding that the Montcrest Property was not property of the bankruptcy estate but, notwithstanding same, the equity in the property had to be used to pay the community claims of the bankruptcy estate.

1 Rob Middleton has served as the Trustee's real estate agent pursuant to order entered on May 16,
2 2011 [Docket No. 163, hereinafter the "May 16th Order"]. With Mr. Middleton's assistance, upon Court
3 authorization, the Trustee sold two properties located in Redding. Based upon informal consultations
4 with Mr. Middleton, the Trustee believes that the Montcrest Property has a value of about $205,000.
5 The Trustee has reviewed a title report for the Montcrest Property. It shows that the it ostensibly the 6 property is titled in the name of Terrington Davies Capital Management, LLC ("Terrington") and that
7 the only encumbrance against the Property, taking into account the avoidance of Transfers described
8 above, is a purported post-bankruptcy deed of trust for the benefit of Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund LLC
9 ("Ptarmigan") for $18,000. Terrington and Ptarmigan are entities used by the Debtor to, among other
10 things, carryout the transfer of the Debtor's interest in the Montcrest Property on an unauthorized basis.
11 Both entities are solely owned by the Debtor. If the Court grants the present motion, the Trustee will 12 employ Mr. Middleton as his real estate agent to sell the Montcrest Property on the same terms proposed 13 in the motion upon which the May 16th Order was entered (providing for a commission of 6% of the 14 gross sale price). A copy of Mr. Middleton's proposed listing agreement is attached to the Declaration
15 as Exhibit B.⁶

16
17
18
19 B. Analysis

20 Under well established bankruptcy law as of the date of bankruptcy filing, any separate property
21 of Mr. Grossman as well as any property of the Grossman/Borodin marital community became property
22 of the bankruptcy estate. 11 USC §541(a). Thus among other real property, the Montcrest property,
23 which was indisputably property of the marital community (a fact confirmed by the Decree), became 24 property of the bankruptcy estate on the date of filing. The Decree was entered after the bankruptcy but

26
27 ⁶ The copy of the agreement attached as Exhibit B is in substantially the form expected which the Trustee expects to execute. The Trustee, however, reserves all rights to revise the agreement to the extent he deems it necessary and appropriate to comply with applicable bankruptcy law.

1 before any trustee was appointed. There is nothing of which the Trustee is aware in the Decree or order
2 confirming that the stay was not in effect that stripped title to the Montcrest Property from the 3 bankruptcy estate. A Bankruptcy Court's order granting relief from the stay is strictly construed. See, In
4 re Wardrobe, 559 F.3d 932, 935 (9th Cir. 2009). In any event, Bankruptcy Courts have original and
5 exclusive jurisdiction over property of a bankruptcy estate. 28 U.S.C. §§1334(a) and 1334 (e). See, In
6 re William N. Simon, 153 F.3d 991 (9th Cir.1998). The Superior Court thus did not have jurisdiction,
7 notwithstanding that the stay was not in effect, to enter an order removing the Montcrest Property from 8 the bankruptcy estate. Furthermore, neither Ms. Borodin nor any third party have the power to transfer
9 title of the Montcrest Property. Only the Trustee has the power subject to his avoidance of the Debtor's
10 unauthorized post-bankruptcy transfer thereof.⁷

11
12 The Montcrest Property is thus property of the bankruptcy estate and the Trustee is entitled to 13 entry of an ordering confirming same.

16 undersigned.

17 Conclusion

18 Therefore, the Trustee requests that the Court enter an order granting this motion.

3.1 STATUS OF THE MARRIAGE.

The marriage of the parties is hereby dissolved. Further references to the "Wife" shall be synonymous with the Petitioner, JILL I. BORODIN. Further references to the "Husband" shall be synonymous with the Respondent, ADAM R. GROSSMAN.

3.2.1 6821 39th Avenue NE, Seattle, Washington. The court finds that this property is community property. This property was purchased by the parties during their marriage. The court acknowledges that the husband signed a Quit Claim deed to the home in June, 2005, Exhibit 55. However, first and second mortgages on the home (Exhibits 29 and 30 respectively) were arranged by the husband, held only in the Wife's name, and the loan proceeds of $101,617 were taken from the equity of the home and transferred to husband's businesses. (Exhibits 3, pg. 30, 349, 351, Tab F). The only testimony as to the value of the home was presented by the Wife to be $480,000. There was no dispute that there were two mortgages which totaled over $600,000 leaving negative equity of $120,000, which is a community debt.

This property is awarded to the Wife as her sole and separate property, free and clear of any interest in the Husband. The Wife shall henceforth assume and pay all taxes, utilities, insurance, mortgage and other obligations on said property and hold the Husband harmless and indemnify him from any liability thereon.

3.2.2 868 Montcrest Drive, Redding, CA, Exhibit 351, Tab E, p. 31 The court finds that this property was purchased with community funds and is community property. This property is awarded to the wife.

The husband shall immediately sign all documents necessary to effectuate a prompt transfer of this property to the wife. If the Husband refuses to cooperate with immediate transfer of the property to the Wife, then attorney Krystina Larch or Margaret Doyle Fitzpatrick are appointed pursuant to CR 70 as a Commissioner in Fact to sign any necessary documents in the husband's stead.

The husband shall have the affirmative duty to disclose all aspects of ownership of the property to the wife and he shall further cooperate in signing any documents necessary to transfer the home to the Wife. The husband shall report the sale on his tax return and he shall bear any tax consequences of the sale.

3.2.3 20710 Glenview Drive, Cottonwood, CA. The court finds that this property was purchased during the marriage and is community property. This property is awarded to the husband.

A. SELLER'S ADVISORY

(C.A.R. Form SA, Revised 11/11)

Property Address: 868 Montecost Drive, Redding, CA 96003

(Property)

1. INTRODUCTION: Selling property in California is a process that involves many steps. From start to finish, it could take anywhere from a few weeks to many months, depending upon the condition of your Property, local market conditions and other factors. You have already taken an important first step by listing your Property for sale with a licensed real estate broker. Your broker will help guide you through the process and may refer you to other professionals as needed. This advisory addresses many things you may need to think about and do as you market your Property. Some of these things are requirements imposed upon you, either by law or by the listing or sale contract. Others are simply practical matters that may arise during the process. Please read this document carefully and, if you have any questions, ask your broker or appropriate legal or tax adviser for help.

2. DISCLOSURES:

A. General Disclosure Duties: You must affirmatively disclose to the buyer, in writing, any and all known facts that materially affect the value or desirability of your Property. You must disclose these facts whether or not asked about such matters by the buyer, any broker, or anyone else. This duty to disclose applies even if the buyer agrees to purchase your Property in its present condition without requiring you to make any repairs. If you do not know what or how to disclose, you should consult a real estate attorney in California, of your choosing. Broker cannot advise you on the legal sufficiency of any disclosures you make. If the Property you are selling is a residence with one to four units except for certain subdivisions, your broker also has a duty to conduct a reasonably competent and diligent visual inspection of the accessible areas and to disclose to a buyer all adverse material facts that the inspection reveals. If your broker discovers something that could indicate a problem, your broker must advise the buyer.

B. Statutory Duties: (For one-to-four Residential Units):

(1) You must timely prepare and deliver to the buyer, among other things, a Real Estate Transfer Disclosure Statement ("TDS"), and a Natural Hazard Disclosure Statement ("NHDS"). You have a legal obligation to honestly and completely fill out the TDS form in its entirety. (Many local entities or organizations have their own supplement to the TDS that you may also be asked to complete.) The NHDS is a statement indicating whether your Property is in certain designated flood, fire or earthquake/seismic hazard zones. Third-party professional companies can help you with this task.

(2) Depending upon the age and type of construction of your Property, you may also be required to provide and, in certain cases you can receive limited legal protection by providing the buyer with booklets entitled "The Homeowner's Guide to Earthquake Safety," "The Commercial Property Owner's Guide to Earthquake Safety," "Protect Your Family From Lead in Your Home," and "Environmental Hazards: A Guide for Homeowners and Buyers." Some of these booklets may be packaged together for your convenience. The earthquake guides ask you to answer specific questions about your Property's structure and preparedness for an earthquake. If you are required to supply the booklet about lead, you will also be required to disclose to the buyer any known lead-based paint and lead-based paint hazards on a separate form. The environmental hazards guide inform the buyer of common environmental hazards that may be found in properties.

(3) If you know that your Property is: (i) located within one mile of a former military ordnance location; or (ii) in or affected by a zone or district allowing manufacturing, commercial or airport use, you must disclose this to the buyer. You are also required to make a good faith effort to obtain and deliver to the buyer a disclosure notice from the appropriate local agency(ies) regarding special tax levied on your Property pursuant to the Mello-Ross Community Facilities Act, the Improvement Bond Act of 1975, and a notice concerning the contractual assessment provided by section 5656.24 of the Streets and Highways Code (collectively, Special Tax Disclosures).

(4) If the TDS, NHDS, or lead, military ordnance, commercial zone or Special Tax Disclosures are provided to a buyer after you accept that buyer's offer, the buyer will have 3 days after delivery (or 5 days if mailed) to terminate the offer, which is why it is extremely important to complete these disclosures as soon as possible. There are certain exceptions from these statutory requirements; however, if you have actual knowledge of any of these items, you may still be required to make a disclosure as the items can be considered material facts.

C. Death and Other Disclosures: Many buyers consider death on real property to be a material fact in the purchase of property. In some situations, it is advisable to disclose that a death occurred or the manner of death. However, California Civil Code Section 1710.2 provides that you have no disclosure duty "where the death has occurred more than three years prior to the date the transfer offers to purchase, lease, or rent the real property, or (regardless of the date of occurrence) that an occupant of that property was afflicted with, or died from, Human T-Lymphotropic Virus Type III (HIV/AIDS) or any other communicable disease." This law does not "immunize an owner or his or her agent from making an intentional misrepresentation in response to a direct inquiry from a transferee or a prospective transferee of real property concerning details on the real property."

D. Condominiums and Other Common Interest Subdivisions: If the Property is a condominium, townhouse, or other property in a common interest subdivision, you must provide to the buyer copies of the governing documents, the most recent financial statements distributed, and other documents required by law or contract. If you do not have a current version of these documents, you can request them from the management of your homeowner's association. To avoid delays, you are encouraged to obtain these documents as soon as possible, even if you have not yet entered into a purchase agreement to sell your Property.

3. CONTRACT TERMS AND LEGAL REQUIREMENTS:

- A. Contract Terms and Conditions: A buyer may request, as part of the contract for the sale of your Property, that you pay for repairs to the Property and other items. Your decision on whether or not to comply with a buyer's requests may affect your ability to sell your Property at a specified price.
 - B. Withholding Taxes: Under federal and California law, a buyer is required to withhold a portion of the purchase price from your sale proceeds for tax purposes unless you sign an affidavit of non-foreign status and California residency, or some other exemption applies and is documented.
 - C. Prohibition Against Discrimination: Discriminatory conduct in the sale of real property against individuals belonging to legally protected classes is a violation of the law.
 - D. Government Retrofit Standards: Unless exempt, you must comply with government retrofit standards, including, but not limited to, installing operable smoke detectors, bracing water heaters, and providing the buyer with corresponding written statements of compliance. Some city and county governments may impose additional retrofit standards, including, but not limited to, installing low-flow toilets and showerheads, gas shut-off valves, tempered glass, and barriers around swimming pools and spas. You should consult with the appropriate governmental agencies, inspectors, and other professionals to determine the retrofit standards for your Property, the extent to which your Property complies with such standards, and the costs, if any, of compliance.
 - E. EPA's LEAD-BASED PAINT RENOVATION, REPAIR AND PAINTING RULE: The new rule requires that contractors and maintenance professionals working in pre-1978 housing, child care facilities, and schools with lead-based paint be certified; that their employees be trained; and that they follow protective work practice standards. The rule applies to renovation, repair, or painting activities affecting more than six square feet of lead-based paint in a room or more than 20 square feet of lead-based paint on the exterior. Enforcement of the rule begins October 1, 2010. See the EPA website at www.epa.gov/lead for more information.
 - F. Legal, Tax and Other Implications: Selling your Property may have legal, tax, insurance, title or other implications. You should consult an appropriate professional for advice on these matters.
- 4. MARKETING CONSIDERATIONS:
- A. Pre-Sale Considerations: You should consider doing what you can to prepare your Property for sale, such as correcting any defects or other problems. Many people are not aware of defects in or problems with their own Property. One way to make yourself aware is to obtain professional home inspections prior to sale, both generally, and for wood destroying pests and organisms, such as termites. By doing this, you then have an opportunity to make repairs before your Property is offered for sale, which may enhance its marketability. Keep in mind, however, that any problems revealed by such inspection reports or repairs that have been made, whether or not disclosed in a report, should be disclosed to the buyer (see "Disclosures" in paragraph 2 above). This is true even if the buyer gets his/her own inspections covering the same area. Obtaining inspection reports may also assist you during contact negotiations with the buyer. For example, if a pest control report has both a primary and secondary recommendation for clearance, you may want to specify in the purchase agreement those recommendations, if any, for which you are going to pay.
 - B. Post-Sale Protections: It is often helpful to provide the buyer with, among other things, a home protection/warranty plan for the Property. These plans will generally cover problems, not deemed to be pre-existing, that occur after your sale is completed. In the event something does go wrong after the sale, and it is covered by the plan, the buyer may be able to resolve the concern by contacting the home protection company.
 - C. Safety Precautions: Advertising and marketing your Property for sale, including, but not limited to, holding open houses, placing a "large/lockbox, erecting FODS SALE signs, and disseminating photographs, video tapes, and virtual tours of the premises, may jeopardize your personal safety and that of your Property. You are strongly encouraged to maintain insurance, and to take any and all possible precautions and safeguards to protect yourself, other occupants, visitors, your Property, and your belongings, including cash, jewelry, drugs, firearms and other valuables located on the Property, against injury, theft, loss, vandalism, damage, and other harm.
 - D. Expenses: You are advised that you, not the Broker, are responsible for the fees and costs, if any, to comply with your duties and obligations to the buyer of your Property.
